Overview

A well presented four bedroom detached property offering lots of character and charm and boasting a converted chapel which is attached to the property and creates a stunning lounge.

Situated within the semi rural village of Cumberworth within close proximity to the famous Lincolnshire wolds, this property offers an abundance of charm and character and a viewing is highly advised to appreciate.

Externally, a block paved driveway to the front offers three private off road parking spaces. To the rear a good-sized garden can be found with established lawns, a raised area of decking and a patio with a shed with a greenhouse and a side gate.

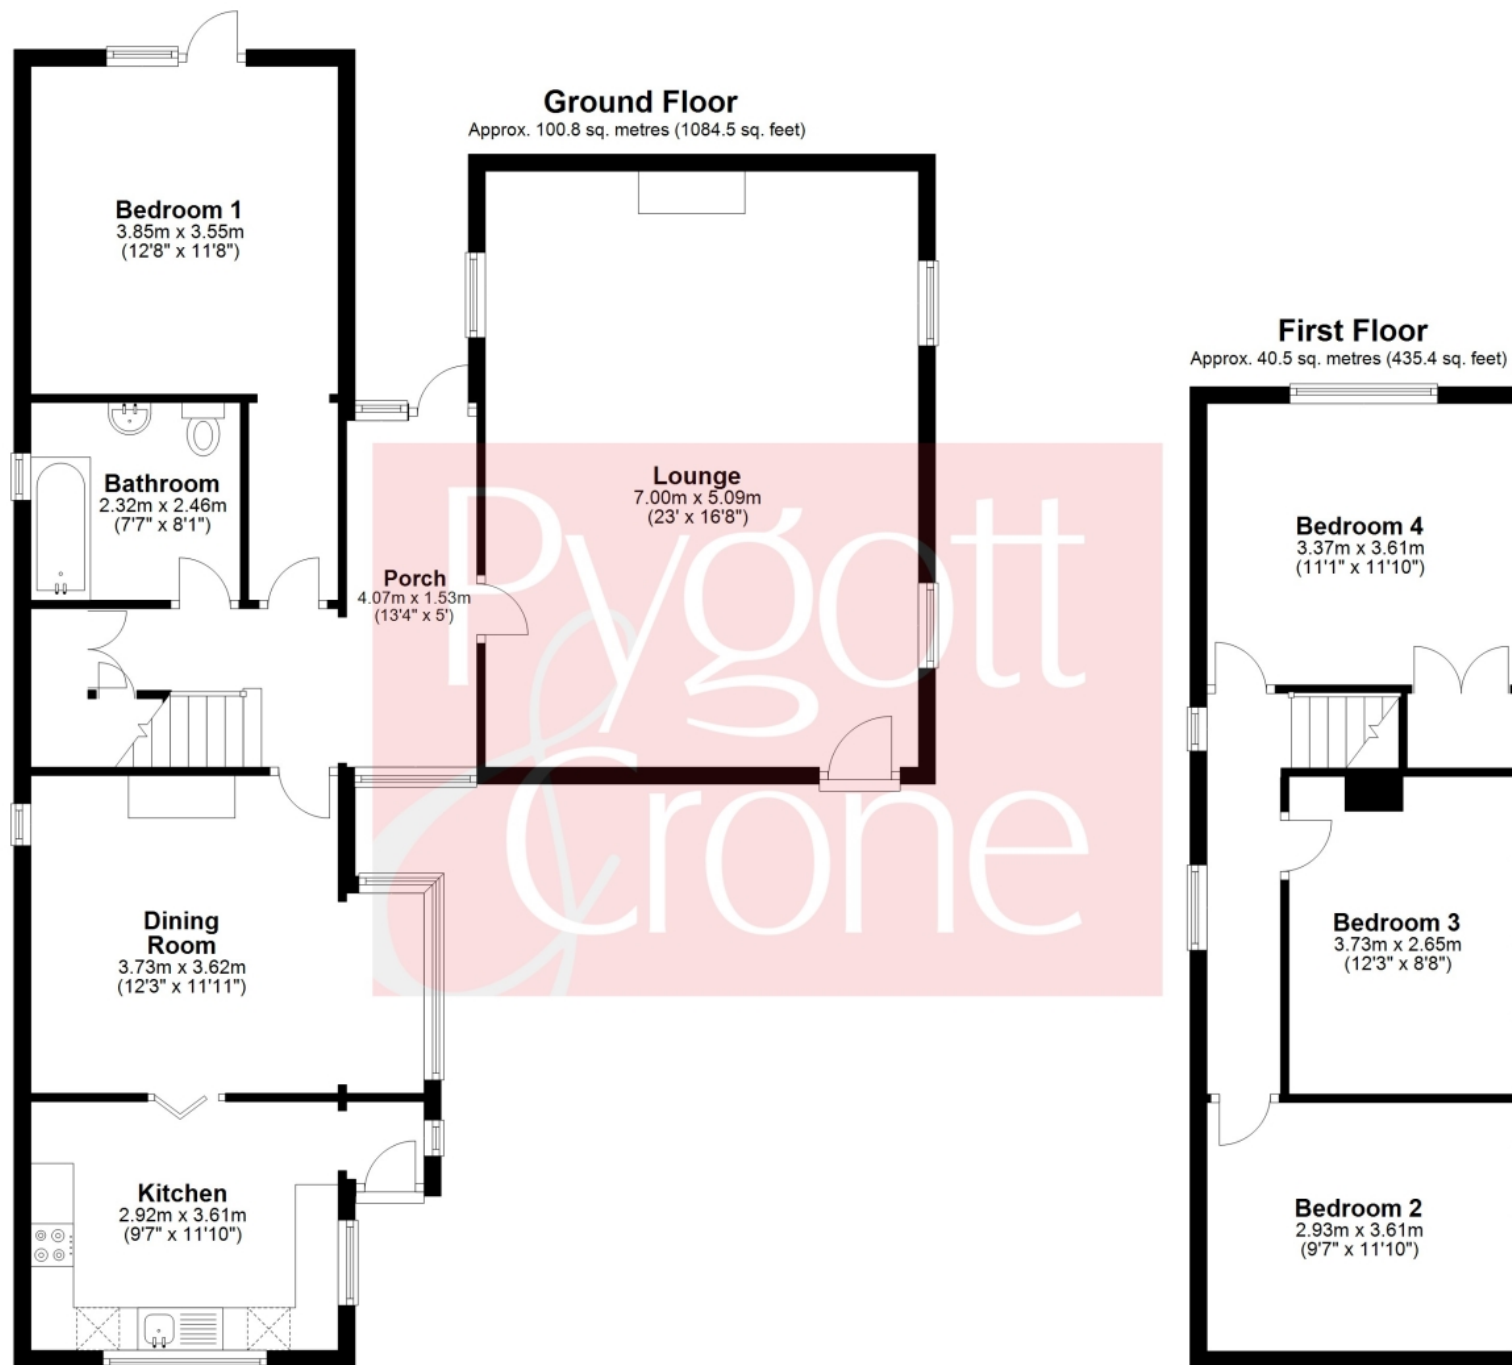

Internally the well presented accommodation is extremely flexible due to the converted connected chapel and it briefly comprises, Entrance Porch which Leads into the Kitchen, Spacious Dining Room, Inner Hall, Bathroom, Ground floor Bedroom and the stunning Converted Chapel which is a Beautifully Appointed Lounge.

To the first floor there are Three Good-Sized Bedrooms.

This property also has Electric Heating and uPVC Windows and Doors.

Total area: approx. 141.2 sq. metres (1520.0 sq. feet)
