Located within a conservation area, this property offers spacious and versatile single-level living in one of Nottingham's most desirable residential settings.

The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged to provide comfortable and flexible living, comprising four well-proportioned bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a welcoming entrance hall that immediately highlights the generous proportions throughout. The layout is ideal for families or those looking to downsize without compromising on space.

The heart of the home is a generous sitting room positioned at the rear of the property, enjoying a peaceful outlook over the wildlife-filled garden. Large windows allow natural light to flood the space, creating a bright yet tranquil living area with a strong connection to the outdoors.
